

WEEK TWO: Entertainment

Week two of Unshelve the Writer will be focused on dialogue and character development. Utilize the following prompt to create a 500–1000-word piece (word count range is an estimate) and then email UnshelveTheWriter@gmail.com if you would like feedback from the other writers or wish to have your finished piece posted online.

- ✚ Celebrate the world of film, television, or theatre by infusing them into your writing. Craft dialogue between multiple characters. Draft a monologue. Write that fan fiction idea for a TV/film “ship”. Revisit the dialogue in your current work. Have fun! Get creative! WRITE!!!!
