

WEEK THREE: Poetry

Roses are red / Violets are blue / I feel like writing a poem / How about you?

As you can tell by my “lovely” example, week three of Unshelve the Writer will be focused on the art that is poetry. Utilize the following prompt to create a three to five stanza poem and then email UnshelveTheWriter@gmail.com if you would like feedback from the other writers or wish to have your finished piece posted online.

- ✚ Explore the world of poetry by reading the work of beloved poets or listening to the lyrics of your favorite songs. Then let inspiration guide your words in poetry form. Have fun! Get creative! WRITE!!!!
